

Liturgy Committee Report--- February 2018

The Liturgy Committee meeting was cancelled due to anticipated inclement weather.

Eucharistic Adoration is inviting new members to join the weekend of February 10-11. There was a bulletin insert as well with a testimony from Francine White.

Anointing of the Sick took place the weekend of Feb 10-11. I estimate just over 100 people received the Sacrament. Fr. Jim has more accurate numbers.

Ash Wednesday – The Liturgies were well attended. 5:30 Liturgy of the Word was the largest crowd and the ushers did a great job of squeezing everyone in the Church proper. Thanks to the many ministers who volunteered through the Ministry Scheduler program. At the 7pm Mass, Tim Simodynes and his youth small group helped with greeting, ushering, and handing out key tags. That was wonderful. Father was pleased that almost all the GALA gift books and the Five Minute of the Word were given away.

There will be just one Communal Reconciliation service at St. Cecilia this Lent on Sunday, Mar 4 at 2pm. There was a conflict with St. Thomas Aquinas for the second date was picked. With spring break in the middle of Lent, it was too difficult to find an additional date.
