

June Liturgy Report 2018 ---

Present: Randy Dalhoff, Deacon Gary Aitchison, Cyndi Volcko, Diana Shonrock, Deacon Jim Goerend

Prayer

Recap of Corpus Christi Procession – Cyndi believed it was one of the largest procession that she remembers. We had beautiful weather. A number of First Communicants participated this year. Cyndi shared how well some of the children were dressed for the occasion. Susan O'Brien called all First Communicants from the past year and invited them to participate. The canopy needs some work and volunteers are being sought to repair it. A big thank you to Maria Schneider for Bishop Barron's The Mass - This resource has been making its way into a number of parishioner's email boxes. It was suggested to possibly use one of the free youtube videos at the next Liturgical Formation Night. Bob received some feedback from Fr. Jim. He is a little hesitant too spend much money on the series especially if would be only viewed by a small group. Also, if the series was introduced on a parish level, it would be more appropriate to send through the Faith Formation Commission and Office. For more info on the resource:

<https://mass.wordonfire.org/study>

Eucharistic Adoration - Eucharistic Adoration will have a break from Friday, June 29 through Saturday, July 8 as the Chapel Hallway is cleaned. Kathy Wipf has resigned from her coordinator, but Cyndi believes she has a replacement. Eucharistic Adoration will have a sign up table in Narthex on September 8-9. It was suggested perhaps all Liturgical Roles should recruit that weekend as well.

Committee members expressed concerns about the weekday Mass schedule with the City of Ames going down to two priests especially since a number of our parishioners attend the noon Mass at St. Thomas Aquinas.

Next year's calendar updates

Eucharistic Adoration – Sign up Sunday with Table in Narthex – September 8-9

Remembrance Litany will take place the weekend of October 27 and 28.

Immaculate Conception Holy Day Mass – 9am on Saturday, Dec 8 – (No Vigil Mass)

Sunday, April 28 – Divine Mercy Chaplet is tentative – Confirmation may occur that afternoon

Liturgical Ministers Updates

Randy is still looking for a few more ushers at the 10:30 Mass.

Diana has a few new readers she has recruited that she intends to train by the fall.

Next meeting – Wed, August 22 -- 2:30pm in the South Social Hall