Fr. James L. Secora, Pastor

www.stceciliaparish.org

Saint Cecilia Parish is a Roman Catholic community formed by the Word of God, united by the Holy Eucharist and enlivened by the Holy Spirit. By our commitment to the teachings of Christ and His Church, the sacraments and charity, our parish strives to build up the body of Christ through worship, life-long faith formation and evangelization.

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled. You are witnesses of these things."

— Lk 24:44, 48

DONATIONS NEEDED

"If you want teens to lead, teach them how to serve." Eighteen Confirmed upperclassmen from Saint Cecilia Parish are seeking leadership training so they can become better servant leaders for our parish community. These peer leaders will serve in our youth ministry programs for 2012-2013 as EDGE, Confirmation, and LifeTeen Members. They will also serve on Commissions and Committees throughout our parish. We are trying to raise $9000 to make this training possible for any teenager at Saint Cecilia. We will be holding several fundraisers over the upcoming months. If you would like to donate directly to Saint Cecilia Life Teen Leadership, please contact the Faith Formation Office and speak to Anna Steele at 515-232-3514. Donation of any size are appreciated. We will provide you with information after the training to share the fruits of your sponsorship. Please consider planting a seed in Saint Cecilia Youth Ministry through prayer or financial support. Thank you for investing in the Catholic Church of tomorrow by sharing your gifts with teens today!

Stewardship: The disciples in today's Gospel came to know Jesus in the breaking of the bread. When we share what we have with those who are in need, we, too, will discover Jesus in our midst.

3rd Sunday of Easter

The traditional opening of the fishing season in many places takes place between the end of April and the middle of May. Although the exact day can vary by locale, usually by May 15, everything is fair game with the exception of a few sport fish, which are heavily regulated. Much like hunters who can't wait to go after their favorite game, fishermen anxiously wait for the opportunity to cast their lines into open water. Some look forward to participating in fishing contests to try to win a prize for the largest of a particular species. But most are happy just to catch enough to enjoy some good meals of fresh fish.

When Jesus appears to his disciples after his resurrection one of the things that he does, according to both Luke and John, is to eat fish in their presence. For the Gospel writers this is a way of indicating that the resurrected body, whatever it may actually be, is also a human body. The risen Lord is no ghost; he is bodily raised from the dead! This truth is at the core of our faith. As Peter states in the first reading today, "God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses."

We are witnesses of that same truth today. The old jokes about fishermen all have exaggeration as a theme. The biggest one always gets away. Fifteen-inch fish are suddenly twenty-five inches, and five pounders end up becoming ten pounds in the telling of the story. As Christians, we have our own story to tell. But it's not a fish story. It is a story about the One who conquered sin and death through his own death and resurrection. Through our baptism we are raised to new life by the Author of life. Like Peter, who was himself a fisherman, we are called to testify to this truth in the world. It's time to go fishing!

Welcome to Saint Cecilia Parish.

Q

Does the church specifically teach about the moral obligations of investing?

A

Using spiritual terms, investing requires us to be good stewards. Using our resources well means that we are careful about where we invest our money. We cannot invest knowingly in an enterprise that promotes values and ideals that are contrary to our beliefs. By choosing well, we can help others and help ourselves at the same time.

In the Catechism of the Catholic Church, investments are mentioned in the context of economic activity and social justice. Paragraph 2432 talks about the responsibility of businesses to consider the good of persons and not only the increase of profits. The catechism goes on to say that profits "make possible the investments that ensure the future of a business and they guarantee employment." Economic activity, including investments, is best understood in the context of social justice. The use of money and exercise of business has social, ecological, and economic effects that can greatly impact people. Investing in moral and ethical businesses helps ensure that the best interests of others are served. When the only value a business considers is the bottom line people can be treated like products, and it fails to ensure the dignity and respect to which all are entitled.
