

Sunday DIVE

Do you ever find the Bible readings at Mass confusing, or disjointed, or just plain weird? If so, Sunday Dive is the podcast for you! Focusing in on the upcoming Sunday readings, Katie Patrizio (Director of Faith Formation) spends each weekly episode exploring the original language, historical backdrop, cultural environment, and Old Testament context of the Scriptures, bringing the text to life and giving listeners a "surround-sound" experience of the Bible like they've never heard before.

Amazing!

I have been listening to Katie's podcast Sunday Dive for a couple of weeks, and I love how she breaks open the Word of God, and pulls the stories of the Old and New Testaments together! She is a great storyteller and speaks with emotion and passion, bringing the Scriptures to life! Thank you so much Katie! I could listen to you teach all day. Praying for your continued ministry here!
